The Official Metropolitan Guide
1480 Broadway
New York City

Dear Sirs:

A recent copy of your excellent Guide has just come into my hands, and I am wondering whether you may not care to have a mention of our little Museum for insertion therein when you print another edition. I am venturing to enclose a brief paragraph which, after you have edited it, would make a desirable notice of our collection.

We find that our Museum is not known even to New Yorkers, and if you could aid us in the way suggested, we should appreciate it very much.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

OFFICIAL METROPOLITAN GUIDE,

1480 Broadway, New York City.

The Official Metropolitan Guide, free to Stranger and Stroller, and with a substantial subscription list among New York's best families, is distributed by arrangement with the Hotel Association of New York City to the guests of all the leading hotels in the city as a part of their service. Its calendar of all daily functions of note and the most complete digest of theatrical review and current calendar make the Metropolitan Guide indispensable to both visitors and residents and is extensively sought after and used by them to-day.

Dear Sir:

I appreciate very much your post card offering notice in your Metropolitan Guide for the meetings of our Society. I thank you very much.

I am sending a card for our meeting of March 4th. If you think this suitable material, we should be very glad to have you insert a notice of it.

Very cordially yours,

Secretary.

Mr R.G.Lewis, Editor,

Dear Sir:-

Herewith is new copy that you desired. We are sorry that our first copy went astray. It was sent to 1640 Broadway as we misunderstood the address over the telephone. As none of our stenographers are in to day we were unable to locate the carbon copy of the material we sent you the first of the week and the writer had to write it himself from memory. If the first copy should turn please compare the two and use the one you think the better. Unfortunately I cannot lay my hands on another picture to send you.

Very truly

Attention of the Editor.

Dear Sir:-

Should you desire to insert an announcement in your booklet regarding this Society, I would like to inform you that we are now showing an exhibition of United States Coins and Medals. The Museum is open daily from 2 to 5, except Mondays.

Very truly yours,

Acting Secretary and Curator.

Gentlemen:

We see that our Museum is not included in your list of "Seeing Upper New York". We are located between West 155th and 156th Streets, adjoining the Hispanic Society of America. The Museum contains one of the finest collections in the world of Coins and Medals, and has at the present time an exceptionally interesting display of the medals of contemporary foreign artists. This exhibition will remain open until February 1st., after which we shall hold again our regular exhibition of coins, medals and decorations.

We should appreciate it if you would kindly insert the attached notice in your very useful Guide.

Very truly yours,

Enc.
